

2010 INTERNATIONAL CLIMBERS' MEET

Event Schedule:

October 4, vans depart from Fresno/ Yosemite International Airport and/or other predetermined location, ie hotel, 1pm. Arrive Yellow Pines campground. 6pm, Dinner and Welcoming reception.

October 5-9, climbing and a brief session of trail work on one of the days

October 10, vans depart Yosemite Valley for Fresno, 9am. All climbers must vacate Yellow Pines campground by 10am

Registration fee is $200. Climbers are responsible for travel expenses to and from Fresno/ Yosemite International Airport. Meals will be provided during the stay at Yosemite Valley

WE WILL BE CAMPING

Essential gear:

Tent, sleeping bag and pad, mess kit (i.e., bowl, plate, fork, knife, spoon, water bottles, coffee mug) harness, climbing shoes, chalk bag and belay device.

Suggested clothing:

The weather in Yosemite this time of year can vary from 60 degrees during the day and low 40 degrees at night. So bring everything from shorts to down coats, hiking shoes to flip-flops.

For Information Contact:

Dana Richardson

Outreach Manager

drichardson@americanalpineclub.org

+1 303 384 0110 ext. 10

This is a unique opportunity for climbers from around the globe to experience the remarkable climbing in Yosemite Valley. This is one event you won't want to miss!